PREAMBLE

Preliminary to any plan of district church organization is an understanding of the Mission of the church and the place and function of the district in that mission.

The mission of the church is set forth in the Great Commission of our Lord in Matthew 28:18-20. Although never fully understood, it seems clearly to have an inner and an outer direction. The inner mission of the church is to nurture its members that they may grow more and more into the stature of maturity in Christ. The outer mission of the church is to be related as God's instrument to the problems and needs of the world. The two major functions of the church are effective to the extent that they are undergirded by stewardship of time, talent, and treasurer on the part of the membership.

The Pacific Northwest District of the Church of the Brethren, hereafter called the District, is a group of congregations located in geographic proximity to each other and having common purposes. The District enables the member congregations to do together what they cannot do separately and helps them to carry out in better fashion their major functions. The organizational structure of the District shall reflect as much as possible the purposes of the District. Above all, the organization shall be shaped to achieve the District's goals and fulfill its functions.
